

European Exploration and Colonization

from World Civilizations chapter 17 pp. 383-390

Key Terms Henry the Navigator Cape of Good Hope Vasco da Gama Christopher Columbus Dutch East India Company	Big Picture Western expansion and eventual colonization had a profound impact on the West and the world. One result was a gradual shift in the global balance of power from Asia to Europe. A second result was the creation of a global system of exchange as the Americas were brought into the world system for the first time. The creation of a global system of exchange will be a primary focus of this unit.
	Objectives Students should be able to... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • understand the impact of changes in trade, technology, and global interactions • analyze the role of exploration in the development of European empires
Answers to In Depth Causation and the West's Expansion	Chapter Questions <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What technological developments contributed to the beginning of European exploration? 2. Summarize the nature of Portuguese and Spanish exploration. 3. How did northern European exploration differ from Portuguese and Spanish exploration? How was it similar?
	Questions from Reading
Document Analysis	