

Extra-Credit Book Report

Assignment:

Read a book from the approved list (or have an alternative approved by Mr. Millhouse) and complete the attached sheets. Student must complete all parts of assignment. No partial credit will be given.

Grading:

You must complete part A and B and in exchange your two lowest daily grades will be turned into 100s.

Due Dates:

Extra credit is due the Friday before the end of every nine-weeks grading period.

If you were to make a movie or documentary about the book, what plot or subplot would choose to omit in order to save time? Explain why.

PART B

Choose one of the themes from the AP World History course that relates to the book and answer the prompt below in a well-developed five paragraph essay. See my AP syllabus for a list of potential themes for your essay.

Make sure you include at least 10-15 pieces of factual evidence from the book to answer the prompt. Cite all evidence using the Turabian Citation Style. See link on my website for info on using Turabian in your paper.

Essay Prompt

Analyze how the book's use of your chosen theme added to your understanding of the theme in world history.
