

Russia and Japan: Industrialization Outside the West

from World Civilizations chapter 27

Key Terms Russia Crimean War Alexander II zemstvoes trans-Siberian railroad Count Witte Japan zaibatsu Sino-Japanese War Russo-Japanese War	Review Question What must a country have in order to industrialize?
Answers to In Depth	Chapter Questions <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. How did Russia respond to the pattern of growing Western domination by attempting to reform their society? Use specific examples. How successful were attempts at reform in Russia?2. Summarize Russia's attempt at industrialization. To what extent was Russian industrialization successful?3. Summarize Japan's attempt at industrialization. To what extent was Japanese industrialization successful?4. How did Japanese industrialization lead to territorial expansion?
Document Analysis Conditions for Factory Workers in Russia's Industrialization Make Sure You Read This!!!	Questions from Reading