Enlightenment thought and the resistance of colonized peoples to imperial centers shaped this revolutionary activity. These rebellions sometimes resulted in the formation of new states and stimulated the development of new ideologies. These new ideas in turn further stimulated the revolutionary and anti-imperial tendencies of this period. <hr/> Questions from Reading Students must be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • understand how the Enlightenment led to new political ideas including natural rights and the social contract • explain the causes and effects of the American, French, Haitian, and Latin American revolutions • analyze how the revolutions created new ideas including liberalism, abolition movements, nationalism, and feminism <hr/> Chapter Questions <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.
